

Registration

To register, please email the following information to avc.scavma@gmail.com. (AVC participants may also fill out the form and return it, with payment, to the SCAVMA mailbox located outside the cafeteria at AVC.)

Name: _____

Affiliation (School or Hospital): _____

Email: _____

Phone number (optional): _____

General Admission: $10
Student Admission: $5

Registration must be received by February 7th, 2012. Registrations received after this date will cost an additional $5.00 each.

Method of payment (circle or highlight):
Cash Cheque
PayPal (email avc.scavma@gmail.com for link)

Total Registration fee: _____

Payment will also be accepted between 8-8:30 am on the day of the conference. Refreshments and lunch will be provided. This event has been approved for CE credit.

Please email Christie Yamazaki or Lindsay Hynek via avc.scavma@gmail.com with any comments or questions.

The Student Chapter of the American Veterinary Medical Association

The concept of a national association of Student Chapters of the AVMA (SCAVMA) was first proposed in 1966 in Louisville, Kentucky. Today, SCAVMA includes 29 student chapters with a total membership of over 10,000 students.

This international organization of veterinary students has enabled what were once isolated student chapters to function effectively as a single unit on the national scene. Here at the Atlantic Veterinary College, SCAVMA coordinates student chapter functions, promotes the exchange of ideas and information among students, and represents its members in matters that concern them, both as students and as future veterinarians.

Contact us by telephone at 902-940-9430 or 916-799-9669
or by email to avc.scavma@gmail.com

Thank you to our generous sponsors:

- The American Veterinary Medical Association
- Oceanographic Environmental Research Society
- Atlantic Veterinary College at UPEI

Student Chapter of the American Veterinary Medical Association presents

Disaster Preparedness: A Veterinary Perspective

Saturday, February 11, 2012 8:00 am-4:45 pm
Lecture Theatre A, Atlantic Veterinary College at UPEI

Meet your presenters

Dr. Tim Ogilvie, DVM, Dipl. ACVIM-LA, is immediate past-Dean of the AVC at UPEI and is presently on the College's faculty. He is a past-President of the CVMA and is involved with the Canadian Veterinary Reserve.

Dr. Heather Case, DVM, MPH, Dipl. AVCPM, is Director of the Scientific Activities Division and Coordinator of Emergency Preparedness and Response for the American Veterinary Medical Association.

Dr. Erica Koch, DVM, is an Assistant Professor in Equine Ambulatory Services at AVC. She completed the Technical Large Animal Emergency Rescue Course and has large animal disaster rescue experience.

Dr. Timothy McQuaid, DVM, MSc, works with the Canadian Food Inspection Agency in Charlottetown. He is responsible for preparedness and response to incursions of foreign animal diseases.

Dr. Carin Wittnich, DVM, MS, is Chief Veterinarian and one of the founding Directors of the Oceanographic Environmental Research Society (OERS). She leads the organization's scientific and rescue initiatives.

Karyn Carlson, BS, CVT, is a second-year veterinary student at AVC. She assisted with animal rescue efforts in New Orleans, LA, and Tylertown, MS, after Hurricane Katrina.

Melissa Gaulton, BSc, BEd, is a second-year veterinary student at AVC. She assisted with avian influenza surveillance and rabies eradication programs in Newfoundland and Labrador.

Workshop Co-chairs

Christie Yamazaki, BS, is a second-year veterinary student at AVC and vice-president of SCAVMA. She is a certified crisis counsellor in California for domestic violence and sexual assault and is a member of Emergency Animal Rescue in San Diego.

Lindsay Hynek, BS, is a third-year veterinary student at AVC and is secretary for SCAVMA. She is a qualified Wilderness First Responder.

Disaster Preparedness: A Veterinary Perspective

Agenda

8:00-8:30 am	Registration (coffee, tea and muffins provided)
8:30-8:35 am	Welcoming Remarks	Lindsay Hynek and Christie Yamazaki
8:35-9:20 am	The Role of the Canadian Veterinary Reserve in Disaster Preparedness and Response	Dr. Tim Ogilvie, CVR/CVMA
9:20-9:30 am	Break
9:30-10:30 am	The Role of the American Veterinary Medical Association in Disaster Preparedness and Response	Dr. Heather Case, AVMA
10:30-11:00 am	A Personal Experience with Disaster Response	Karyn Carlson, Melissa Gaulton & Dr. Erica Koch
11:00-12:30 pm	Emergency Preparedness—Animal Disease Response	Dr. Tim McQuaid, CFIA
12:30-1:00 pm	Lunch (provided)
1:00-2:00 pm	Disasters, Animal Response & The Oceanographic Environmental Research Society (OERS)	Dr. Carin Wittnich, OERS
2:00-2:15pm	Centres for Disease Control: Veterinary Student Day
2:15-2:30 pm	Break
2:30-3:45 pm	Table Top Exercise	Dr. Heather Case, AVMA
3:45-4:30 pm	Q&A Panel
4:30-4:45 pm	Closing Remarks	Lindsay Hynek and Christie Yamazaki

For the welfare and care of our domestic animals during an emergency

Email avc.scavma@gmail.com to register.
General Admission: $10; Students: $5 (CE credit available)

Saturday, February 11, 2012 8:00 am-4:45 pm Lecture Theatre A, Atlantic Veterinary College at UPEI